St. Anthony Mary Claret*

The Angelic Trisagion

Foreword

The exquisitely beautiful Trisagion Prayers, intoned by the nine choirs of Holy Angels

Seraphim, Cherubim, Thrones, Dominions, Powers, Virtues, Principalities, Archangels and Angels

“Give endless praise To the Holy Trinity in Heaven. This devotion to the Blessed Trinity is the official prayer of the Order of the Blessed Trinity, otherwise known as the Trinitarians. The devotion has been recited by them and their affiliates for centuries in praise of the Trinity. Throughout man's history these prayers were transmitted by the Persons of the Holy Trinity to various saintly people such as Isaias, John the Apostle and Evangelist and St. Anthony Mary Claret. When these prayers were given to St. Anthony Claret who lived from 1807 to 1870, he was informed by the Holy Ghost, Third Person of the Holy Trinity, that many chastisements due to mankind because of its fallen nature, would be considerably mitigated for those persons who would pray the Trisagion Prayers entirely. Since our world is sinking very rapidly in its attitudes toward Almighty God, so as to almost obliterate His being, this laxity thus causing diminishing morals and lessened reverence for holy persons and things so that sin and vice prevail everywhere, mankind falls deeper and deeper into a dark pit of its own making, thereby meriting many punishments and chastisements from God for its errant ways. Unlike the angels, man is not inclined to give Almighty God endless praise”

He spends little time in prayer and his slight offering is usually given amid countless distractions. It would be wise, for those who fully comprehend the need to make suitable reparation to the Most Holy Trinity Who is so greatly maligned and offended in these days of great spiritual darkness. What more effective way can be found to please the Holy Trinity than to use the prayers of the angels and the other prayers so greatly esteemed and desired by Heaven? Remember that prayer is essential to life. In a letter to Mother Maria Antonia de San Pedro, Saint Anthony Claret writes, “God, Our Lord, has made known to me in a very clear way the necessity that we have to pray and to promote the devotion of the Trisagion, and of the Most Holy Rosary and devotion of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, frequently visiting Him and receiving Him in Most Holy Communion.”

In particular, the Trisagion is as Saint Anthony Claret says,

“An Impenetrable shield against all the evils that God has sent on earth as a Chastisement for our sins.”

Our Lord enlightened me in regard to the three evils menacing Spain, which are:

[1] Protestantism; or rather the decrease of the Catholic spirit

[2] The Republic, and

[3] Communism. In order to counteract these evils, Our Savior made me understand that three devotions had to be intensified, namely, the Trisagion of the Holy Trinity, devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, and devotion to the Holy Rosary. The Trisagion is to be said daily. The Blessed Sacrament should be honored by hearing Mass, receiving Communion frequently, visiting the Blessed Sacrament, and making spiritual communions. The three parts of the Rosary should be said every day, or at least one part, while meditating on the mysteries for each decade, and applying the prayers to the needs of the times.”

THE ANGELIC TRISAGION

An offering to Gain the Indulgences We humbly beseech Thee, O Lord, to hear and grant the needs of our Holy Mother the Church and the State: for the exaltation of the Holy Catholic Faith; the extirpation of heresies; peace and unity among Christian rulers; the conversion of infidels, separated brethren and sinners; for prisoners, the sick, the dying, those who are traveling; for the Holy Souls in Purgatory and for all the pious works of our Holy Mother Church. Amen.

Preparatory Act

O Most Merciful God, Unity in Essence and Trinity in Persons, behold here one of Thy humble creatures, who recognizes within itself the venerable image of Thy Most Holy Trinity. I confess that I have not fulfilled my obligations with the honor to which this divine likeness obliges me. I have sinned, my God, but I never denied Thy Trinity. Rather, I have firmly believed in the Father, in the Son, and in the Holy Ghost: that the Father has no beginning; that the Son is begotten of the Father, with Whom He is consubstantial; and that the Holy Ghost is the object of the reciprocal love of the Father and Son, from Whom He proceeds and with Whom He is consubstantial; and the Father is not superior to the Son, nor are they superior to the Holy Ghost. I adore the Father as God, the Son as God, and the Holy Ghost as God; nevertheless, in the Three I believe and adore only a Single God. I do not understand this mystery, O Lord, by my understanding is fascinated by virtue of Faith, for Thy greater glory and my merit. I offer these most profound sentiments of piety, of reverence and of love, as most pleasing supplications of Thy sanctity, so that through them Thou mayest forgive so many offenses committed by me against Thy uncreated majesty. O Most Blessed Trinity! The miserable trinity of my faculties sighs for Thee: my memory, tainted by weakness; my understanding, infected by ignorance; my will, perverted by the inclination to evil. Heal me, sanctify me, and give me help so I may never lack the intentions with which Thou hast deigned to inspire me; for I promise to dedicate myself, from now on, to upholding the dignity of the practices that correspond to Thy own character, with which Thou hast sealed me; to appreciate it as fully as I possibly can with Thy grace; and to avail myself of Thy grace to preserve in devotion and in the mystery of Thy Most August Trinity, in Whom I hope to find mercy, compassion and benevolence forever. Amen.

Amen.
